Certified Machinery Safety Expert

Use of CMSE[®] Title and Logo

Use of the CMSE® Title and Logo

Congratulations upon becoming a CMSE® – Certified Machinery Safety Expert! This short document has been prepared to inform you of the use of the CMSE® title and Logo.

Please note

- CMSE® and Certified Machinery Safety Expert are registered trademarks.
- The certification is awarded to individuals who have successfully passed the CMSE® training examination, and not the individuals company, therefore the title can only be used by individuals who have attained certification.

Course Title

‘CMSE® – Certified Machinery Safety Expert’ is the title of the accreditation. You may, if you wish add TÜV NORD, after the training name to demonstrate the independent certification.

Course/Accreditation Title Options

- CMSE® – Certified Machinery Safety Expert
- CMSE® – Certified Machinery Safety Expert (TÜV NORD)

Note: Certified Machinery Safety Expert is NOT to be written, without the letters ‘CMSE®’

Terms of Use

- The words ‘Certified Machinery Safety Expert’ and ‘CMSE®’ must always be used together e.g. CMSE®- Certified Machinery Safety Expert. ‘Certified Machinery Safety Expert’ cannot be used without ‘CMSE®’
- There must always be an ‘®’ after the CMSE (with the exception of business cards)
- There are no ‘full stops’ between the letters i.e. CMSE® is correct, C.M.S.E. is NOT correct
- As the training name is a registered trademark, the text ‘Certified Machinery Safety Expert’ is not to be translated into other languages. Therefore, please note, ‘CMSE® - Certified Machinery Safety Expert’ is to appear ONLY in English.

Signature Options

The following are examples of the ways in which you can write your email signature once you have attained CMSE® certification

No.	Option	Example
1	Firstname Surname, CMSE®	John Smith, CMSE®
2	Firstname Surname, CMSE® Certified Machinery Safety Expert	John Smith, CMSE® Certified Machinery Safety Expert
3	Firstname Surname, CMSE® Certified Machinery Safety Expert (TÜV Nord)	John Smith, CMSE® Certified Machinery Safety Expert (TÜV Nord)
